We Serve

President's Message

Another evening of fabulous eats occurred on Italian night October 27th. The meal was catered by Fazoli's and by all accounts everyone had their fill of some fine Italian delights. That night the drawings were held for the first ever hog raffle. Congratulations to Lions Joan Graves and Jerry Brunner. Thanks to everyone who sold or purchased tickets and a very special thanks to Lions Doris Glastetter and Rick Hopp for chairing the raffle. Another successful Washington Lions fundraiser which is especially important as we continue to navigate through this year.

Speaking of raffles, the 24 Days of Christmas gun raffle is wrapping up and winners will be drawn. Look for emails on the daily winners. Ongoing until August 2021 is the big 50/50 raffle. It is not too early to be selling tickets. I hear they will make great stocking stuffers.

The Monarch Awards were handed out at the luncheon on November 17th. It was also the traditional Thanksgiving meal. Congratulations to all the Washington Lions members who celebrated milestone memberships and service to our club. On top of celebrating these Lions members' achievements, a delicious Thanksgiving meal was enjoyed by all.

December is upon us with all its online shopping, mask wearing events, and socially distanced activities. Such is life in 2020. The club is still planning on having the annual Christmas Party on December 15th in the Elks Lounge. I am sure it will be the usual extravaganza, COVID or no COVID. The trolley ride is also still planned so arrange your schedules accordingly. Thanks to Lions Bill Dickinson and Nick Niehaus for keeping the party "on schedule."

With Franklin County recently issuing a County wide mask requirement. I would ask every Lions member to please abide, especially when attending the club's own functions and events. We want to show we are good stewards of the community by following the mandate especially when out in the public's eye. I know some members are not attending meetings and events due to the virus and that is very understandable. We are attempting to keep the club together as best as can occur with the circumstances and the best way to do that is to continue to have meetings, activities, and events for however many members wish to attend.

If there is one wish for this holiday season it is that all the Washington Lions members keep healthy and safe so they can enjoy this joyous season. We have a great deal to be thankful for even during a pandemic. May you have a blessed holiday season and may the new year bring hope, optimism, and much joy.

Yours In Lionism,

Lion Ron Williams
