President's Message

We recently paid tribute and honor to our fellow Lion Vince Borgerding. His life and volunteerism is a testimonial for what Lionism is all about. We will miss him, but his years with us brought much joy. We are establishing a memorial fund for Lion Vince, and we will provide everyone more information in the near future.

The Special Olympics occurred earlier this month. This is one of the events everyone should do at least once. It is such a rewarding event. Thanks Lions Mike Radetic and crew that participated.

A big thanks to Lion Jeff Patke and crew for coordinating the Fish Fry and to Lion Darryl Balleydier for making sure the refreshments will make their way to Lion's Lake for our Tuesday evening meeting. I am sorry that I will have to miss this year. Lion Ron Williams will be leading the meeting in my absence.

Fall Festival this coming weekend and is always a lot of work. Thank you to Lion Jarod Newman for chairing this event and to the volunteers.

We have several fun filled activities scheduled for October. On the 4th, we will be grilling for United Way's golf tournament, next is Missouri Meerscham's 150th Birthday Celebration on the 19th, Healthy Senior Day at the YMCA on the 24th, the Chili Cook-off on the 25th, and the Pumpkin Palooza on the 26th. Let's hope for great Fall weather and good turn outs.

Yours In Lionism,

Lion Dan Haire
