President's Message

Greetings Fellow Lions,

Fall has begun and the cooler temperatures mean a change in the seasons. Fall has also seen a fund-raising opportunity occur with the Fall Festival of the Arts where we cooked and served pork burgers. A huge thanks to Lion Jarod Newman for chairing this event. Even though sign ups went rather slow at first Lions Club members stepped up when needed. Thanks to everyone who took the time to help at the event.

The Washington Lions Club still has an adopted section of Highway 100 and Lion Jeff Weber needs a couple of Lions to help with the clean up on Saturday, October 17th. If you can spare some time, please sign up and meet at Bahr's Furniture at 9am.

Another opportunity to serve is Candy Days which has been rescheduled to Friday, October 23rd. Lion Dan Haire would greatly appreciate a couple more Lions members to come out and help at the corner of 5th and Jefferson.

You will more than likely get tired of hearing this over the next year but sell, sell, sell those 50/50 raffle tickets. If you need tickets please see Lion Matt Feltmann and he will be sure to hook you up with some. Also taking place over the next few weeks is the hog raffle. ½ hog with the processing is the winning prize meaning there will be two winners. See Lion Doris Glastetter or Lion Rick Hopp for tickets. The drawing for the hog raffle will take place at our evening meeting on October 27th which will be an Italian themed night.

The Lions Appreciation Dinner at the Riverfront took place on August 25th and was well attended although it was rather warm. The ever-popular fish fry is Tuesday, September 29th at the Lions Lake Pavilion. Due to limited seating and the need to space out, please remember to bring chairs. A special thanks to Lion Bill Dickinson who has stepped forward to chair this event and continue the tradition of getting together and celebrating as a Club.

Thanks to everyone who is able to attend meetings or help at an event. Your work and dedication are much appreciated in these uncertain times. The one certainty as always is "We Serve".

Yours In Lionism,
Lion Ron Williams
