President's Message

Fellow Lions,

June brings summertime and many fundraisers for the Club. Please help your Club by volunteering for the events when requested. Many hands are needed.

Not one but two evening meals upcoming. Steak night on May 25th and the annual pig roast on June 1st at the Riverfront. Should be two great nights of fellowship and probably a few laughs. Thanks to Lion Nick Niehaus for putting together the pig roast.

Many thanks to Lion Bill Dickinson for chairing and the many volunteers who worked the Art and Winefest. Unfortunately, I was out of town, but I am sure it was very successful as it sounded like the weather cooperated.

On June 3rd is the Chamber Mixer at the Park. Thanks to Lion Dan Haire for chairing the event and the Lions who have already volunteered to work.

Upcoming fundraiser is Sunset on the Riverfront on June 24th. Thanks to Lion Brenda Smith for chairing the event. Look for the sign up to work and please volunteer. We will be cooking and selling our world-renowned pork burgers.

At the end of June, June 29th to be exact, it is the Scholarship and Induction of Officers Dinner. Notices have been mailed so please submit your payment, so we get an accurate count. If you can, please consider submitting some extra funds with your payment for the Scholarship Fund. Even though club funds are available for the scholarships any extra contributed means more Club funds can be allocated elsewhere. Also, Lion Leon Hove is selling free lunch raffle tickets for the upcoming year. Tickets are $20 each. Be sure to purchase one before the drawing at the Scholarship Dinner.

Lion Tim Matthews is working with the Cardinals for a hardy group of Lions to attend the day game on June 30th. Look for upcoming details.

The slate of officers for the 2021-2022 year will be voted on by the membership at the May 25th Steak Dinner.

Still looking for a couple of Lions to participate on a Projects Committee to figure out where we can allocate some funds. Even though the year was not the best for fund raising and activities the Washington Lions Club remains in good fiscal shape. This is a testament to our Club and its members. Thanks everyone for your help in getting through this rough year.

Yours In Lionism,
Lion Ron Williams
